Boober vacuums short center, Joe wins batting title, offense still comatose in 9-1 season ending loss

August 17 - It was Turn Back the Clock Night as the Legends attempted to close out the season with a win.

They were facing Rhinos, which had beaten them 11-4 three weeks earlier.

The good guys quickly jumped out to a 1-0 lead after two innings.

With one out, Tom slapped a base hit to right field. John then followed with a single, sending Tom over to second base.

After Phil flew out to center field for the second out, Ed stepped up and banged out an RBI single.

Ed finished the season with the hottest bat on the team, getting 7 hits in his last 10 at bats. He was just getting loose in May, June, and July.

In the top of the third inning, the Rhinos took the lead back, 2-1, and the Legends couldn't produce another run in the game.

As a matter of fact, after they took that 1-0 lead in the second inning, they only had 8 more hits in the final 5 innings.

Defensively, the men of pistachio looked really good, and were led by an incredible night from Boober playing short center field.

Boober posted 8 putouts and 4 assists in the game. He also pivoted three double plays in each of the first three innings.

The best one by far was the one in the third inning.

Rhinos had runners on first and third with one out. The batter ripped a line shot over Boober's head...or was it?

He leaped up, deflected it up in the air, and caught the deflection for the out. The runner at first was so sure it was a hit that he was easy pickins getting doubled off first on Boober's toss to Jerry.

In the latter part of this season, the Legends infield has been turning double plays like crazy.

It all began when Scot K returned to the roster. The Legends have now turned 11 double plays in the last five games.

Other defensive kudos go out to Tom at third and John at short, each posting a putout and 3 assists.

In the outfield Scotty and Steve each had one catch.

Offensively, Joe clinched his sixth batting title tonight by going 3 for 3 and finishing at .622. His other
